MANNES COLLEGE THE NEW SCHOOL FOR MUSIC

Date Founded

Degree Programs
Mannes College The New School for Music offers three full-time, four-year undergraduate courses of study: bachelor of music, bachelor of science, and undergraduate diploma. The college also offers two full-time, two-year programs preparing post-baccalaureate musicians for the professional world: master of music and professional studies diploma.

Fields of Study
Orchestral Instruments, Piano, Harpsichord, Voice, Classical Guitar, Orchestral Conducting, Composition, Theory, Collaborative Piano, Choral Conducting, Vocal Accompaniment for Pianists.

Additional Programs
The Preparatory Division educates children from age four to young adults preparing for college. The Extension Division is open to all who wish to pursue music—from adult beginners to working professionals. Summer programs and institutes held annually at Mannes include master classes, performances, lectures, ensembles, and coursework.

Leadership
Richard Kessler, Dean
Audrey Axinn, Assistant Dean
Joseph Colaneri, Director of the Opera Program
Pavlina Dokovska, Piano Department Chair
Valerie Feuer, Associate Dean for Administration
William Gustafson, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs
Chris Gulhaugen, Director of Instrumental Studies, Orchestra Manager
Judith Mendenhall, Woodwind Department Chair
Frank Nemhauser, Director of Vocal Studies
Ray Riccomini, Brass Department Coordinator
Beth Roberts-Sebek, Voice Department Coordinator
Kate Sheeran, Assistant Dean, Prep and Extension Division
Hiroko Yajima, String Department Coordinator

Student Population
319 students in degree programs (123 undergraduate, 196 graduate)

Student Demographic Information
46% international; 10% from out of New York State, 43% in-state
56% female, 44% Male

Updated July 2014
Preparatory Division
405 students ages 4 to 18 years

Faculty Population†
Full-time: 17; Part-time: 227*

Notable Alumni

* Part-time faculty includes only those teaching at the start of the 2013-2014 academic year.
† Including Extension and Preparatory divisions

Updated July 2014