THE NEW SCHOOL FOR PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

Date Founded
The New School for Public Engagement was established in 2011 with the integration of The New School for General Studies, home of adult and continuing education (programs upon which the university was founded in 1919) and Milano The New School for International Affairs, Management, and Urban Policy, named for New School trustee Robert J. Milano and created in 1975 for graduate study in public administration and civic life.

Degrees Offered
Creative Writing (MFA)  Media Management (MS)
Environmental Policy and Sustainability Nonprofit Management (MS)
Management (MS)  Organizational Change Management (MS)
Environmental Studies (BA, BS) Psychology (BA)
Food Studies (BA, BS) Public and Urban Policy (PhD)
Global Studies (BA)  Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (MATESOL)
International Affairs (MA, MS) Urban Policy Analysis and Management (MS)
Liberal Arts (BA, BS) Urban Studies (BA)
Media Studies (MA)

Certificates Offered
Undergraduate
Creative Arts and Health  Documentary Media Studies
English as a Second Language Leadership and Change
ESL + Design  Media Management
Film Production  Organizational Development
Screenwriting  Sustainability Strategies.
Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

Graduate
TESOL Summer Institute

Other Programs
- Continuing education for adult students in social sciences, humanities, media studies and film, creative writing, foreign languages, English language studies, visual and performing arts, management and business, and food studies
- Summer Writer’s Colony
- The Institute for Retired Professionals (the nation’s oldest peer-learning program for older adults)
- The Center for New York City Affairs
  InsideSchools.org
  Feet in Two Worlds immigrant journalism project
  Child Welfare Watch

Updated July 2014
Leadership
Mary Watson, Executive Dean
Kathleen Breidenbach, Vice Dean
Michelle J. DePass, Dean of Milano School of International Affairs, Management, and Urban Policy
Joseph Heathcott, Associate Dean of Academic Initiatives
Emily Martin, Assistant Dean of Academic Operations
L.H.M. Ling, Associate Dean of Faculty Affairs
Laura Auricchio, Dean of the Bachelor's Program for Adults and Transfer Students
Stephen J. Collier, Chair of the Julien J. Studley Graduate Program in International Affairs at Milano
Carin Kuoni, Director of the Vera List Center for Art and Politics
Gabriel Diaz Maggioli, Director of TESOL
Michael Markowitz, Director of the Institute of Retired Professionals
Luis Jaramillo, Director of the MFA Program in Creative Writing
Ann Balsamo, Dean of the School of Media Studies
Clara Hemphill, Interim Director of the Center for New York City Affairs

Student Population
1,999 in degree programs (473 undergraduate and 1,526 graduate)

Student Demographic Information
12% international; 27% from out of New York State, 61% in-state
66% Female, 34% Male

Faculty Population
94 full-time, 364 part-time*

Notable Alumni
Thomas DiNapoli, MS '88, New York State Comptroller; Patricia McCormick, MFA ’99, National Book Award nominee; Carolyn Mugar, '67, executive director of Farm Aid; Laura Poitras, BA '96 documentary filmmaker and MacArthur Fellow; Sufjan Stevens, BA ’00, singer/songwriter, Danyel Smith Wilson, MFA ’06, editor, Vibe magazine; Emily Youssouf, MA ’77, former president of New York City Housing Development Corporation. In addition to these alumni, adult education students have included Eleanor Roosevelt, James Baldwin, Woody Allen, Ani DiFranco, Lorraine Hansberry and Jack Kerouac.

* Part-time faculty includes only those teaching at the start of the 2013-2014 academic year.